Description
The garden fire pit is ideal for sitting by an open fire in all seasons. In winter, the fire warms us, allowing us to sit, socialize, maybe enjoy a glass of mulled wine, heat the terrace, or simply light a fire in the garden. It is also ideal for special occasions, as an open fire creates unforgettable moments. It is also suitable for all other seasons, as the fire is soothing and provides a pleasant atmosphere.

In addition to burning wood, the garden fire pit also offers various grilling options. With the right accessories, you can cook almost any type of food on it. You can grill on a grid, a plate, cook under the coals, roast skewers and sausages, grill corn, potatoes, chestnuts...
For purchasing grilling accessories, please contact us.
